Money Management Center

Who do we help?

Any student who needs guidance regarding their financial health while in college to set them up for success throughout their education. All Lions are welcome to our services.

What Help Do We Offer?

We assist students in understanding their personal finances, aid, and student accounts while fostering healthy and responsible financial planning through earning, saving, budgeting, purchasing, spending, and so much more.

When should students come to us for help?

The best time for students to visit the Money Management Center is when they need assistance with understanding their financial aid offers, student account charges or guidance with their overall finances in all parts of their life.

How can students get help at the B2GMMC?

Students can reach out to the Money Management Center by email (MoneyMatters@etamu.edu), phone number (903.886.5000), visiting Velma K. Waters Library, Suite 231, or scheduling an appointment by visiting the scheduler on the Blue to Gold Money Management Center webpage.
