Procedure Summary

East Texas A&M University (University) has established the minimum cumulative grade point average standards for "Good Academic Standing."

This procedure established the criteria for "Good Academic Standing" for all students at the University.

Procedures and Responsibilities

1 UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

1.1 Entering students (first-time university students or transfers) who have been fully admitted (without any type of probation, provision, or restriction) will be considered in good academic standing.

1.2 With the exception of students designated in § 1.4, a student is in good academic standing if and only if he or she has a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.00 and is not on disciplinary suspension.

1.3 A student placed on academic probation or suspension must attain a cumulative grade point average of 2.00 or higher to be in good standing, regardless of whether he or she is allowed to re-enroll. (See 11.04.99.R0.06 Undergraduate Scholastic Probation and Dismissal)

1.4 For good standing status, an undergraduate student must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 2.00 and be in compliance with ethical and professional standards as determined by the student's academic department and university rules and procedures.

1.5 The University Registrar is responsible for the good academic standing designation and reporting.

2 GRADUATE STUDENTS

2.1 For good standing status, a graduate student must maintain a 3.00 GPA. A doctoral student can have no more than two courses with grades less than a B. A student must be in compliance with ethical and professional standards as determined by the student's academic department and university rules and procedures.

2.2 When a graduate student does not satisfy the conditions reflected in § 2.1, the Graduate School will implement the provisions of procedure 13.99.99.R0.39 Graduate Academic Probation, Retention and Suspension for academic probation and suspension.

Definitions
